The image shows an open notebook with two pages. The left page is numbered '400' in the top left corner and is covered in a grid of graph paper. The right page is blank. The notebook is held open by a dark cover, and the spine is visible in the center. There are some dark shadows at the bottom of the pages, possibly from the person holding the notebook.
